

Did you know our school library now subscribes to the EBSCO eBook High School Collection? This collection contains thousands of fiction and nonfiction e-book titles including classic literary works, contemporary fiction, important historical documents and general reference materials. The collection offers the following features and benefits:

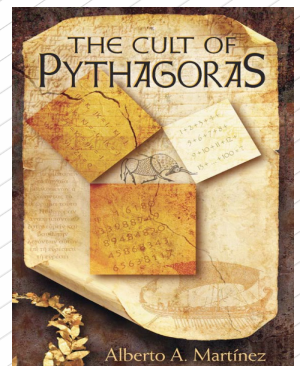

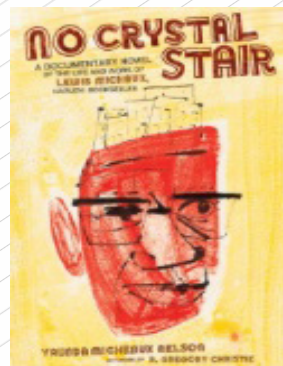

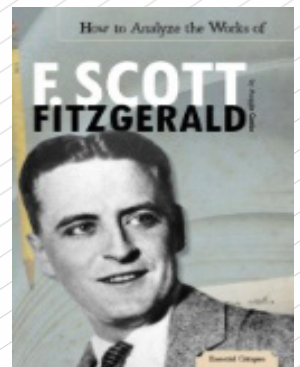

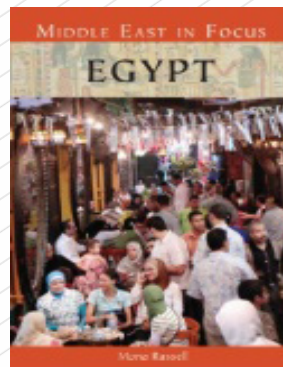

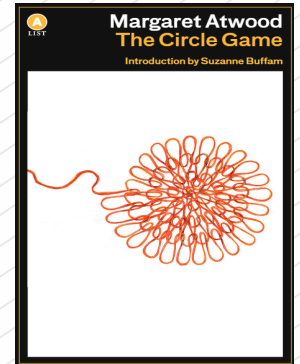

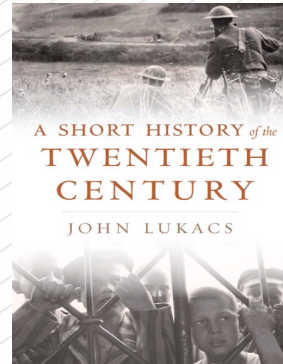

- Mobile-ready format to support 1:1 initiatives and blended learning programs
- Content that provides quality learning experiences across all high school subject areas and aligns with state and national curriculum standards
- User-friendly search experience and simple download process
- Simultaneous access that allows teachers the flexibility to assign class-wide readings without the inconvenience of having to locate a sufficient number of hard copies or spend extra time at the photocopier
- Wide selection of professional development titles

Publishers include:

- ABDO Publishing Company
- American Library Association
- Bloomsbury (UK and USA)
- DK, a division of Penguin Group (USA)
- Orca Book Publishers
- ...and more!

Subjects include:

- History
- Language and literature
- Science and technology
- Mathematics
- Performing arts
- Business and economics
- Foreign language study
- Political science
- ...and more!

Ask your school librarian for details.