

Poetry & Short Story Reference Center

Powered by EBSCOhost

Students and teachers seeking reliable research information on poets, short stories and the people who write them should look no further than Poetry & Short Story Reference Center™. Available through the library website — at school or from home — this database contains a historically rich collection of hundreds of thousands of classic and contemporary poems, as well as short stories, biographies and authoritative essays on such topics as poetic forms, movements and techniques.

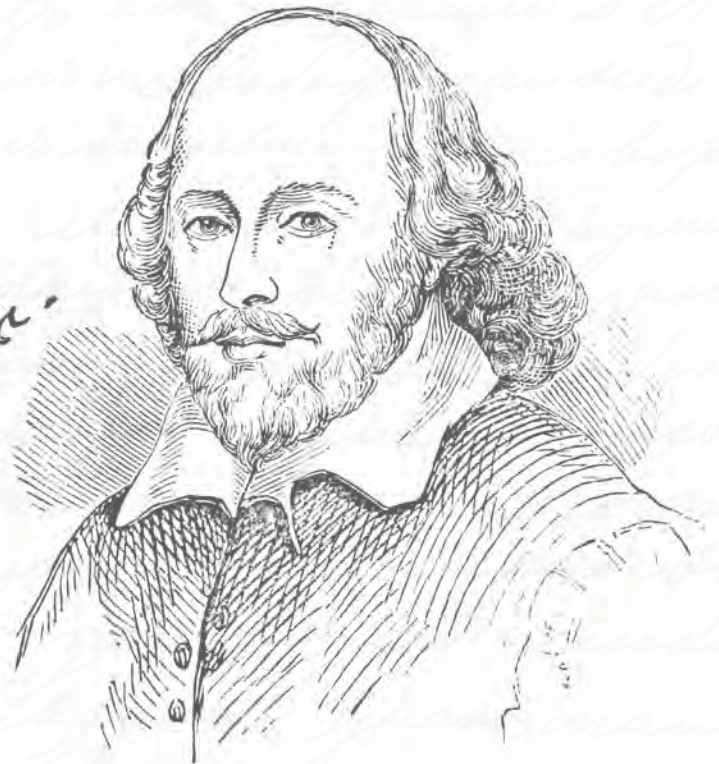

Students can...

- Search for poems, poets, short stories, authors, and more using a single search box
- Browse content alphabetically by most-studied poets and authors, most-studied works, poetic forms and techniques, themes, literary periods and movements
- Hear HTML articles read aloud with EBSCO's Text-to-Speech feature
- Save articles and searches to your own personal folder for easy retrieval
- Use EBSCO's citation tool to properly cite sources in your research

Teachers can...

- Discover rich multimedia — including images, videos and audio recordings — to enhance content delivery and increase student engagement
- Find curriculum support materials including lesson plans crafted specifically for use with this database

William Shakespeare

Ask your librarian for details.